Directors of the East India Company about the safety of accept-and paying the 150 Pounds drawn in Consideration of the Redemption of the Society's Effects on board the Jane Frigate, and that it is of Opinion the Society not being incorporated the Company

if they would, give them any more. But as the Bill on the East India Company is refused and returned to France, they have no right to call any body to acc<sup>t</sup>. for what is paid for ransoming Goods on board the Jane. - That to clear all doubts Mr. Bidwell to whom the Bill of 150 is payable, is willing to pay it to the East India Company, if they will pay the Bill drawn on them for the Ship & Cargo.

The Committee considering that by Mr. Finck's L<sup>re</sup> the Society's Goods taken by the French at Rio de Janeiro were rated by Governor Collet at 300 But that in regard to y<sup>e</sup> Society, and the designe they were engaged in, he had ..... charged them only with half of what he reckoned to be y<sup>e</sup> prime Cost. And also considering that Governour Collet had not only been kind to Mr. Finck on his Voyage to Brasil But taken him on board the Jane and assured him of his passage and Dyet free the Remainder of his Voyage, and that the Society's Goods should be carried freight free to India. /

Agreed to desire Mr. Dolins to pay the 150 to Mr.
Bidwell mentioned in Mr. Collet's Bill, upon his giving such receipt as Mr. M<sup>r</sup> M<sup>r</sup> shall think proper. / Dollar for Mr. Cook's son in France, he reckoned as part of the 150.

Agreed that Mr. Moore be desired to pay Mr. Dolan's bill to complete the payment of the said bill of 150. - /

Mr. Wendu Communicated his Thoughts as to several Facts mentioned in the Narrative of the Society's proceedings relating the Protestant Mission to the East Indies, and was desirous at his leisure to Communicate to the Committee his Observations in Writing, concerning the most Practicable
Method of Propagating the Gospel in the East Indies.

The Committee being acquainted that the Society had referred it to them to consider of sending a Sum of money to Mr. Finch in regard of the great Labor and Hardships

Shute, M<sup>r</sup>. Long Chaplain going to India, M<sup>r</sup>.
Stevenson.

The Committee gave directions for the manner of binding up Catechisms.

The Committee being informed that there was reason to think some of the Cargoe of paper sent to India with the pref might miscarry or at least be damaged by falling into the hands of the French, and that the pref would be useful without a sufficient quantity of paper to display it.

That a Quire of the said paper be left with H. Newman to be matched if there should be Occasion hereafter.

Agreed that five Guineas be given to Mr. Adler the German Printer now going over to India, as a present from the Society towards furnishing him with necessaries in so long & dangerous a Voyage and encouraging him in the work he is going upon.

Mr. Richardson laid before the Com<sup>y</sup> the Draught of a New preamble for Subscriptions towards the Charge of the Impression of the Liturgy and Catechisms &c. in the Irish Language and the same being read over was approved & ordered to be printed.

The Committee made some progress in Mr. Richardson's Account And Adjourned till next Monday Morning.

Monday 16 Feby 1712

Present - Mr. Hoare Mr. Shute Mr. Watts Mr. Steele
Mr. Woodward of Guilford. Mr. Cockburn. Mr.
Blackbeth - /

The Committee ~~reported~~ having at several times, in of an order from the Society, the 24 April last taken into Consideration the best methods they could, to advise and assist the Reverend Mr.
Richardson in his pious and charitable design of promoting the Conversion of the popish Natives of Ireland, make their Report as followeth.

Mr. Richardson having begun an Imposition of 6000. Common Prayer Books in English and Irish, and the Com.
being of opinion that those Books would be very useful towards promoting Christian Knowledge in Ireland and Highlands of Scotland. Encouraged him to proceed in it

And likewise advised him to print

6000. Church Catechisms single; And 6000. Lewis's Exposition of both in English and Irish.

As also to the Trustees of the Society, with a proposal for their Consideration.

That these Books being now printed off, and Mr Richardson's Affairs requiring him to return to Ireland, he has laid before y<sup>e</sup> Committee a particular Account of the Charge of the whole work, and produced Vouchers for the same, and also an Acc<sup>t</sup> of the Benefactions rec<sup>d</sup> towrd promoting it;

And the Committee having examined the same, find that Mr...
Richardson has been very just in his Applications of y<sup>e</sup> money rec<sup>d</sup> by him, and the Abstract of his Account is as followeth.

The Charge of the whole work amounts to ... 817. 16. 2

The Benefactions already rec<sup>d</sup> and paid by Mr
Richardson towards promoting this work amount to } 404. 3. 3

So there remains due to Balance the Acc<sup>t</sup>
of Charge on this work ... } 413. 10. 11

Towards settling this Balance there is promised } 133. -. 6
but not yet paid

Which when paid will reduce the Balance to. 280. 10. 5

Agreed to meet at such time and Place as Mr Hoare shall Direct.

Tuesday 24 Feby. 1712

Present, Mr Green, Mr Chamberlayne, Mr Moore
Mr Aschmole, Mr Richardson, Mr Mackbeth, Shute, Mr Cockburn, Mr Watts.

The Committee Considering of the most proper Methods of distributing the Common Prayer Books and Catechisms in the Irish Language intended for Scotland, are of Opinion that 700 Books of Common Prayer & 1050 Catechisms being already sent to Scotland by the Order of Mr Dongworth &c. In order to be distributed in the Highlands that it will not be advisable to send more at this time, till the Success of those Books be known, but that in the mean while 300 Books of Com. Prayer & 1000 of Lewis's Exposition of the Church Catechism in the Irish Language be kept in the Hands of this Society to be distributed as they may hereafter think fit.

Agreed to meet again at such time and place as Mr
Hoare shall appoint.

Wednesday 6. May. 1718.

Present, Mr. Mayo, Mr. Boehm, Dr. Bray, Mr. Shute
Mr. Dolins, Mr. Hoare, Mr. Lloyd of Yarmouth
Mr. Watts Dr. La Croze. ~

Mr. Dolins reported that Governor Collett's Son who was ...
Hostage in France for the Jane Frigate and Her Cargo was .....
Arrived in England, and that the Captors had abated to the Ransom:
=ers 500. in 3500 the whole Ransom, and that therefore a 7th part of the 150. which the Society were to pay for their proportion of the Cargo would now be abated.

Agreed that Mr. Hoare be desired to pay Mr. Dolins 68:11:6 which with 60. already paid. and 21:8:6 being the 7th part abated amounts in the whole to 150. agreed to be paid for the Ransom of the Society's Cargo in the said Ship.

Agreed that Mr. Hoare be desired to take up Governor Collett's Bill drawn upon Mr. Dolins, for the said 150. upon his paying the 68:11:6. and take a proper discharge from Mr. ....
Bedwell thereon.

Agreed to meet at such time & Place as Mr. Hoare

A Letter was read from Mr. Gyles Jones of Langham in Carmarthensh. of the 29th of May signifying that he was coming with all Expedition to London in order to converse with the Gentlemen that are concern'd in promoting the Protestant Mission to the East Indies.

Agreed that the said Letter be read at the Society.

Agreed to meet again as Mr. Hoare shall Direct.

Mr. Mackbeth, Mr. Helling, Mr. Brindnel.
Mr. Jones.

The Committee being inform'd that the Rev<sup>d</sup> Mr. Jones lately come from Carmarthenshire was very much qualify'd to go a Missionary to the

that Service and resolved to support him therein
as far as good Providence should enable them.

Upon which Mr. Jones being called in, the Proposal of going to the East Indies was made him, and he desired time to consider of it.

Agreed to meet again as Mr. Hoare shall direct.

Mr. Mackbeth, Mr. Cockburn, Mr. Hallam

Mr. Hoare moving for an Audit of his Account relating to the Malabar Mission.

Agreed

Agreed that Sir John, Mr. Brotham, Mr. Chamberlayne, Mr. Green, or any three of them be desired to meet here next Friday Morning by 9. Clock to audit his Accounts.

W. Jones acquainted the Committee that he had consider'd of their Proposal, and that he labour'd under some Difficulty of accepting of their offer by reason of a Cure which he had in Wales, and which he had reason to fear might be destitute, (as it had been sometime before he came to it,) of the Ministry of the Gospel, if he went to India: But that notwithstanding this, and some other objections which had occur'd to him, if the Gent. who had invited him to go to India should upon a deliberate consideration be convinc'd that he could be more serviceable to the Interest of Religion by going to India, than by staying in England, he should have a great regard to their Argument in order to determine himself in this important Affair.

A Letter from M<sup>r</sup>. William Jennings at Ft S<sup>t</sup> George of the 26th of Sep<sup>r</sup>. 1782. was read, and refer'd to a further consideration.
Adjourn'd to next Friday the 24th. C<sup>on</sup>.

M<sup>r</sup>. Cockburn laying before the Committee an Account of the Charge of Books bought and sent to the Missionarys by last Fleet and =ting to five pound 8. Shill<sup>l</sup>. and 3. pence.

Agreed that M<sup>r</sup>. Hoare be desired to pay the said Bill.

Hen. Newman laid before the Committee an Account of his Disbursements for two years past on Account of the Protestant Mission to the East Indies amounting to £ 26. 2. 11½.
of which he had formerly received six Guineas.

Agreed that M. Hoare be desired to pay the Ballance due thereon viz. £ 19. 13. 11½.

The Committee agreed also to desire M.
Hoare to pay Hen. Newman Twenty Guineas in consideration of his constant attending the Committee and taking the Minutes, and assisting in Shipping of the Society's Goods sent to India for 2. Years past, and procuring them to be pass'd the East India House and Customhouse.

The Committee having Audited M. Hoare's Account it appear'd that there has been at several times subscrib'd and paid since the last Audit, including the Ballance brought from the

the last Account, the Sum of Three hundred Ninety Eight pounds, Sixteen Shillings, and pence half penny: And that he had paid to several Orders from the Committee for making the application of this Charity, paid four hundred fifty Six pounds Nine Shillings and a half and that the Balance now remaining in Mr. Hoare's hands, is Two hundred forty pounds, seven Shillings and eight pence.

Order'd that the Particulars of the said Account be enter'd at large, in the Book for that purpose.

Agreed to meet here to morrow after =noon by half an hour after 4. of the Clock

WHEREAS the Reverend Mr. Bartholomew Ziegenbalg, and Mr. Jerry Plafcho, who were educated under the Direction of Professor Franch, at the University of Hall in Germany, were sent in the Year 1705. to Propagate the Gospel among the Malabarians in the East-Indies, where they arrived in July 1706. And whereas since their Arrival in those Parts, they have, by God's Blessing on their Endeavours, been very successful in their Mission, having built a Church at Tranquebar, on the Coast of Coromandel, where they constantly Preach, Pray, &c. either in the Malabarick or Portuguese Language, to a Congregation of Persons actually baptized, and of Catechumens, amounting to a Hundred and Sixty, besides great Numbers of others, who flock thither to hear the Sermons and other Parts of Divine Worship; and have likewise erected Two Charity-Schools, for the Educating and Instructing the Malabarian Children in the Principles of the Christian Religion; besides which, they have begun to Translate the New-Testament into Malabarick, and in January last had nigh finished the Four Gospels; and God be prais'd, there are no small Hopes of a much greater Success from the indefatigable Labours and Zeal of these Two Missionaries, and of Three others, (Two whereof were bred at the same University) that have been since sent to assist them, as appears by their Letters which have been printed here, intituled, The Propagation of the Gospel in the East: Part I, II. printed by Mr. Downing, in 1709, and 1710.

And whereas it is too plain from the Letters of these Missionaries, that the Support that they have hitherto had, has been much too small for so great an Undertaking, and that the said Missionaries labour under very great Difficulties for want of a Printing-Press; It is therefore proposed by the Reverend Mr. Boehm, late Chaplain to His ROYAL HIGHNESS PRINCE GEORGE, and by several other Pious and Charitably disposed Persons, that some Thousand Copies of the New-Testament shall be printed in Portuguese, (being a Language commonly understood in the East-Indies) in a neat Elzvir Character, and be distributed among the Malabarians, Chineses, and other Nations in those Parts, which, through the Blessing of God, ('tis hop'd) will very much tend to promote the true Christian Religion among those ignorant and idolatrous People. Besides which, it is also propos'd, that the said Missionaries may be supplied with some Money, for the better enabling them to carry on their pious Design of Erecting Charity-Schools, and prosecuting that glorious Work, which they have so happily begun.

WE therefore, whose Names are underwritten, have subscribed and paid, for the Purposes abovementioned, the several Sums to our several Names annexed.
